

Edisford Newsflash

Week 2

Welcome to your weekly Newsflash, which aims to keep you well-informed about weekly events at school. This newsflash will ensure that you are kept up to speed with things from week to week.

Marvellous Manners

Our Marvellous Manners celebrate British values and our Edisford Characteristics for Success – Confidence, Resilience, Getting Along, Organisation and Persistence. Each week, our Ambassadors give us a new Marvellous Manner to work on, and on Fridays, the teachers give out house points to those who have particularly stood out.

This Week's Marvellous Manners: Being ready to learn every day.

Mrs Darnell, Mrs Smithson & Mrs Blackmore nominated: Rohan M & Arham H, for always being ready to learn, putting their hands up and good listening on the carpet.
Miss Blockeel, Miss Knight and Mrs Halstead nominated: Freddie L, for always being ready and always listening.
Millie W, for listening carefully in art and producing a lovely creative piece of work.
Mrs Calton & Miss Slinger nominated: Noah G-F, for really really good listening.
Lucy W, for always bring ready to learn and engaged in phonics.
Mrs Agius nominated: Isaac C & Thomas G, for always being ready to learn, doing the right thing, and being enthusiastic.
Mrs Colvin nominated: Cory K, for being hard working in class, particularly in our Geography topic!
Pippa B, for working hard in everything she does, asking for help if needed and tackling challenges with enthusiasm.
Mr Young nominated: Rudy G, for working hard in every single lesson, even when things get tricky.
Zacki H, for settling into Edisford life really well.
Mrs Jackson & Mrs Chadwick nominated: The whole class! Every member of the class is so ready for the Year 6 challenge and we are SO proud!

Next Week's Marvellous Manners: Moving around school safely.

Mrs Hamilton-Thorpe's Story of Week

The Road Less Travelled

This week, Mrs Hamilton-Thorpe told us the story of Maya, a thoughtful and courageous girl who came to a fork in the road. One path was clear and well-trodden, with lots of people following it. The other, The Road Less Travelled, was dark, overgrown and difficult to follow. Maya chose to take the less-travelled path, even though it was challenging, and eventually emerged into the sunshine to find a beautiful beach where her friends and family were waiting. The story reminds us of the importance of thinking for ourselves, having the courage to follow our own path and understanding that life will not always be easy. Sometimes we encounter unexpected obstacles and difficult moments, but if we persevere, we can discover where we are meant to be. Most importantly, we should have the courage to be ourselves and become who we are meant to be.

Ambassadors are trusted with special jobs, such as helping in assemblies, speaking in class and taking the lead during school events. Whether they're cheering others on, lending a helping hand or standing up for what's right, they show us all how to be our very best selves.
